

Workshops

Thursday 28.08.2015, 10:00-11:15

Sylvain Romain “A Stronghold Called Islam: Where Are the Keys?”

Soon or later, every ministry acting in Europe will have to meet the growing reality of Islam: Immigrants, refugees, students, tourists, not to forget partners in health business. Islam is considered one of the strongest strongholds of the last days. Where are the right keys to open its gates? Sylvain Romain offers them to you and your ministry! There are modeled by nearly 40 years of expertise. Not just saying what he knows, Sylvain also knows what he says: His academic background has been polished in numerous encounters with Muslims worldwide, from the stranger in your neighborhood to the most prestigious scholars of the Middle East. His unique touch of the Islamic heart and mind has brought many sons of the East to Christ and His Church.

Thursday 28.08.2015, 10:00-11:15

Claus Nybo “Media”

Claus is the founder and president of the Swedish media ministry Lifestyle TV. In his workshop important basics for Media ministry work will be demonstrated.

Thursday 28.08.2015, 14:30-15:45

Kamil Metz “From the 1840’s to GLOW”

In this workshop we will explore the role literature played in the establishment and growth of our church in different parts of the world.

Thursday 28.08.2015, 14:30-15:45

Jeremy Zwicker “The highest education - what is my life calling”

Are you getting schooled or educated? What is the aim of your education? How can an army of workers be “rightly trained” in this generation? How can I be connected and involved in such a movement? How can the Holy Spirit be poured out without measure? What is God’s end-time strategy for His people? Come and find out God’s call to this generation in relation to education.

Thursday 28.08.2015, 16:00-17:30

Kamil Metz “GLOW: A New Evangelism Phenomenon”

There’s a new phenomenon in the church today! Children love to share them, Pathfinders love to use them, youth find creative ways of sharing them, adult Sabbath schools promote them, and seniors are able to find simple ways to share them. Come and learn how to ignite a GLOW spark in your sphere of influence.

Thursday 28.08.2015, 16:00-17:30

Peter Roennfeldt “The harvest model of ‘making disciples who make disciples’”

In this practical workshop explore Jesus’ relational streams and harvest model of faith sharing

Friday 29.08.2015, 10:00-11:15

Louis Torres “Evangelism - Decisions”

Have you been disappointed and dishearten? You have given Bible studies; the person seems interested and you expected them to say, “Where is the baptistery?” But instead, they give you a casual ‘thanks’ and never make a decision. Would you like to know what to look for when you are giving a Bible Study? Would you like to know how to detect if the person is truly interested? Want to know what are the indications that the Spirit is really working on the heart? If that’s your desire, come to this seminar

Friday 29.08.2015, 10:00-11:15

Peter Roennfeldt “Story telling Jesus’ way: their story, our story, God’s story”

Learn six steps to launch new Adventist churches - from Jesus’ practical instruction to the ‘seventy’.

Friday 29.08.2015, 11:30-12:45

Louis Torres “Evangelism - Decisions 2”

Have you been disappointed and dishearten? You have given Bible studies; the person seems interested and you expected them to say, “Where is the baptistery?” But instead, they give you a casual ‘thanks’ and never make a decision. Would you like to know what to look for when you are giving a Bible Study? Would you like to know how to detect if the person is truly interested? Want to know what are the indications that the Spirit is really working on the heart? If that’s your desire, come to this seminar.

Friday 29.08.2015, 11:30-12:45

Radim Passer “Using the business platform for evangelism”

Our place in God’s business. Sharing a testimony of a businessman about the opportunities God is providing through business he conducts. What is that God can do in place and time we don’t see it to be right. Could a “business park” become the place where people will get to know Jesus and make a life-changing decisions? Where are God’s limits? What happens, when God is in charge?.